FLAGLER MUSEUM'S BLUEGRASS IN THE PAVILION CONCERT

Palm Beach, FL - The 10th Annual Bluegrass in The Pavilion concert will bring the best Bluegrass musicians to South Florida. Artists for the 2015 performance are Balsam Range and The Grascals. Proceeds from the concert benefit South Arts' emergency planning for Gulf Coast cultural institutions. 2011 Bluegrass Concert at the Flagler Museum

Balsam Range is a group of five outstanding acoustic musicians and singers from Haywood County, North Carolina. For their band name, they thoughtfully adopted the name of a majestic range of mountains that surround part of their home county... where the Smokies meet the Blue Ridge... the Balsam Range. With five IBMA Awards and nominations, including 2013 IBMA Album of the Year winner for "Papertown", 2011 IBMA Song of the Year for "Trains I missed", 2011 IBMA Emerging Artist of the Year nominee, 2011 IBMA Album of the Year nominee for "Trains I Missed", and 2010 IBMA Emerging Artist of the Year nominee, Balsam Range is sure to entertain.

Timely yet timeless, The Grascals make music that is entirely relevant to the here and now, yet immersed in traditional values of soul and musicianship. Their cutting-edge modern bluegrass is delivered with a deep knowledge of, and admiration for, the work of the music's founding fathers. It's a unique sound that has earned three Grammy® nominations and two Entertainer of the Year awards from the International Bluegrass Music Association, as well as national media attention.
